Introduction

Welcome to Read the Bible, a flexible guided tour through the scriptures. It has been developed to assist you in your Biblical literacy through reading every book of the Bible and watching teaching videos from the Bible Project™. It is flexible in that it is structured in seven units which allows for you to determine the pace and order in which its completed. It can also be used individually, as a group, or a combination of both.

LET'S GET SOMETHING PERFECTLY STRAIGHT...

This is not meant to be a chore!

There is certainly wisdom in “disciplining” ourselves to read the Bible, but if it becomes a chore, we risk forming negative attitudes towards scripture and feeling distant from God. We eagerly hope that your motivation to complete this reading plan will come from your desire for Jesus and his Kingdom, and to experience his closeness and warmth. The spiritual powers of darkness want nothing more than to convince you that the Bible is tiresome, boring, and irrelevant. May God grant you the grace to follow your desire for him.

GOALS OF THE READING PLAN

Goal #1: Gain a broad understanding of the Bible and its overall themes to support your lifelong spiritual formation

This is not a Bible study! We're choosing breadth to equip you for lifelong depth. You will undoubtedly stumble across deep questions as you read, and you will not necessarily have time to address them all immediately. Jot them down as you go, and trust that you will be far better equipped to wrestle with the deep questions when you have greater familiarity with the whole.

Goal #2: Encourage the spiritual practice of regular time with God

Regular time with God is an essential spiritual practice. If you do not already practice it, this reading plan will help you get started. Some find setting aside short times each day works best for them. Others find that having one or two larger chunks of time per week works better (for instance, on the weekends or whenever they are not on shift at their work).

HOW TO USE THIS READING PLAN

Here is a brief guide on how to use this reading plan:

Unit Structure

This reading plan divides the Bible into seven units which are ordered as follows: 1) Gospels & Acts, 2) Epistles, 3) Pentateuch, 4) Historical Books, 5) Wisdom Literature, 6) Prophets [two formats available], 7) Revelation. This order allows you to begin by reading something familiar (the Gospels) to help boost your confidence before diving into the Old Testament which is typically more challenging. Revelation is scheduled last since it is best understood in the context of the entire Biblical story and it heavily references the Old Testament prophets.

Unit Content

Each unit generally has two pages:

The first page is the Unit Detail. It lists all the content in its recommended order and includes the URL of each video (URLs are clickable hyperlinks when viewing on your computer).

The second page is the 10-Week Reading Plan which breaks the unit's content down into 5 readings each week. The video URLs are not included on this page, but the video labels are clickable hyperlinks when viewing on your computer. The reading plan has the added feature of suggesting one psalm per day (which is not included in the unit detail page) to benefit from the way psalms often touch our heart.

Online Access

The content of this reading plan is available online at the website below. You can access it easily from your smartphone by scanning the QR code to the right. All the videos are linked off this page.

Preparation Courses

At the beginning of each unit there is a list of “preparation courses” to complete. They are detailed on page 3 and provide useful background information for understanding the readings in the unit. You need only complete a preparation course once. If another unit calls for the same preparation course, you may skip it.

Scheduling

The included reading plans were made to be 10 weeks long for an intentional reason: 10 weeks easily fits into one season of a church calendar. One 10-week unit can start in September and be done well in advance of Christmas. Then you can fit two 10-week units from January to June and still allow for a one-week break in the spring and a full summer break. The Revelation Unit is very short making it easy to work as a summer study, thus allowing the entire Bible to be completed in two years.

However, do not let that suggested schedule box you in. One of the main reasons this plan was developed was to offer more flexibility than many whole-Bible reading plans. Committing to reading the whole Bible is a giant barrier for some. With this plan, you are only committing to one unit at a time. For individuals using this plan, you need only commit initially to 10 weeks, and then you can start up again if life allows. If your group is doing the units in sequence and life gets busy for a short season, there will soon be an opportunity for a fresh start when a new unit is started.

USING THIS READING PLAN WITH A GROUP

Reading as a group is highly recommended as it is a great way to stay motivated. Here is some guidance for group leaders who want to integrate this resource into their group:

It is not recommended to use this as your group's primary study content

Encourage group members to develop a regular practice of time with God and to use this plan in that context. Time with God is a lifelong personal spiritual practice which is meant to be prioritized before any other faith activity.

Explain to the group how time with God is different than Bible study

Bible study is about increasing our knowledge. Its end goal is to absorb that knowledge. This reading plan is more about developing a regular personal practice and to develop familiarity and connection with God. We need to set our expectations appropriately. We will not absorb everything we read through this reading plan like we might expect to do in a Bible study.

Use group time to briefly check-in about how the reading plan is going

You might ask, "How are people finding the reading plan? Are there any challenges you are facing? Have you discovered anything new or interesting?" Budget 5-10 minutes for a high-level discussion and plan on moving on afterwards. If you already have a time where you check-in with one another about your lives this can be added to that.

Cultivate a spirit of freedom

We are encouraging people to follow this plan out of their desire for Jesus. Compelling or pressuring people robs them of their desire and makes the motivation about human expectations. Avoid the word, "should" (e.g., "Followers of Jesus should read their Bibles daily"). Be sensitive to people whose lives are too busy or stressful for "one more thing."

Have everyone follow the same reading schedule

Included in this document are suggested 10-week daily reading plans which you can schedule as a group. Encourage people who fall behind to simply skip the weeks they've missed and pick up the plan where the group is at. Give yourself a fresh start! There is no need to be bogged down by the weight of several weeks of "catch-up" readings.

Before you begin, take a moment as a group to center yourselves on your motivating desire

In silence, invite Jesus to remind you your group that your true desire is for Jesus and his Kingdom. The goal is not to complete 100% of the plan.

ADVICE FOR THOSE WHO STRUGGLE TO COMPLETE THE READINGS

We get it! Life is busy!

No really... we get it!!!

Many of us begin reading plans like this excited and motivated to finally build our relationship with Jesus. For the first few weeks we're doing well, but then suddenly life gets in the way. Maybe we've had a busy week at work, maybe we went away, or maybe we simply find our motivation is dwindling. Then one day we pick up the reading plan and realize we are 20 chapters behind!

What does that feel like? Often it feels like guilt and stress: guilt for feeling like you disappointed yourself (or God), and stress for the mountain of pages you feel you need to catch up on.

If this sounds anything like you, here is some advice:

- ▶ Before you begin the reading plan, take a moment to remind yourself that the goal is not to complete 100% of the reading plan. Finishing a unit with "unchecked boxes" is not a defeat.
- ▶ Do not do this study alone. We are weakest to the spiritual forces of darkness when we are isolated.
- ▶ Use the included daily reading plans. A "bite-sized" daily portion will help the plan feel more manageable.
- ▶ If you fall far behind your group, skip the readings you missed and pick up the plan where the group is at. Remember the goal of this is broad understanding and encouraging regular time with God. There is no need to be bogged down by the weight of several weeks of "catch-up" readings. Give yourself a fresh start!
- ▶ If life is too busy to complete the readings, consider just watching the videos. This will help you stay current with your group, and it will still help you accomplish the first goal of the study.
- ▶ Remind yourself of this over and over again: God does not love you less for not reading the Bible. God is not punishing you for not reading the Bible. If Scripture is clear about anything, it is clear about the fact that God is relentlessly pursuing you. You are never too far from the flock to find your Saviour following behind you to rescue you (Matthew 18:10-14).

Preparation Courses

You do not need to complete these courses all at once! Each unit will specify which of these courses are to be completed. If you have already completed a preparation course in the past, you do not need to complete it again.

REGARDING THE DEFINITION OF “WISDOM LITERATURE”

This reading plan uses the term “wisdom literature” to refer to the books of Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon. However, we wanted to acknowledge that there is some disagreement among scholars as to whether Psalms and Song of Solomon should be considered wisdom literature.

“SONG OF SONGS” OF SOLOMON

Most translations refer to this book as “Song of Solomon” with the notable exception of the NIV which refers to it as “Song of Songs.” The reason for this is the first line of the book is literally, “The Song of Songs, which is of Solomon.”
